Steve Kilbey

Multi-talented artist and musician Steve Kilbey is holding his first ever visual arts exhibition at The Henderson Gallery.

Steve is revealing some of his new and earlier works in an outstanding solo exhibition.

In public appearances at the Gallery, Steve will talk about his works and his life of art, writing and song.

This exhibition is a major visual and performing arts experience.

Eclectica 2017

Steve Kilbey is a singer, bassist and principal songwriter for iconic Australian band The Church and is a double inductee into the ARIA Hall of Fame.

While best known as a musician, Steve is also an accomplished visual artist and poet.

One of his early exhibitions featured 20 original works of art paired with original music and the spoken word. A collection of his paintings has also been released as a tarot deck.

Steve lives in Coogee NSW and loves hanging out with his kids.

Steve's solo exhibition runs until the end of June and can be seen at The Henderson 92 Ernest Street, South Bank from 18 May 2017.
